School and handed

The reading of A Christmas Carol — 12/18/86

Present were: SRP, DWP, HAP, Jackie Warrington, Barbara & Howard Yepson, Susan Stephens, Hank Loftus, John Klimkiewicz, Jim Heppner. Ethel & Jackie Kiefer each made a cake; Hank's grandmother made a pound cake; SRP made gingerbread cookies; SRP took a large HLRP coffee pot & his electric tea kettle. SRP took cups & silverware & linen and we had a lovely dessert table; two of the 4 staves were read & then we paused and had some refreshments; we then continued with the final two staves.
Very genteel, very gracious, very relaxing. We sat in a circle in 301 City Hall and read and visited and had a grand time.

"A Christmas Carol"
This reading of Dickens will become an annual event, doubtless; just as the SRP "A Christmas Memory" will become an annual event. The Dickens reading was a Hank Loftus' idea, and a very good one.
